An Exceptional Woman

Princess Al Anood bin Abdulaziz bin Musaed bin Jalawi Al Saud (1940 - 1999)

She is the wife of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, King Fahad bin Abdul Aziz Al Saud, King of Saudi Arabia, she wrote her will in 1967 when she was 27 years old. Where she recommended that one third of her legacy be harnessed to goodness and what serves Islam and Muslims.

Will of Continuous Goodness

Princess Al Anood Foundation

Princess Al Anood Foundation was established under the Royal Decree No. (239) dated 22/10/1420 AH. Corresponding to 29/1/2000.

Since its inception, the Foundation has been striving for sustainability in all that it offers and believes that responsible giving is the true embodiment of the work and the support of whomever is worthy, and that empowerment is the achievement core and the road to goodness quality. And that volunteering is the seed of goodness within humans, which the foundation will provide for to make it grow and produce, then measure its impact by the reach of its effect. The Foundation also believes that working with public and private sectors and international organizations is the basis of solidarity to serve this country.

Loyal Sons
